

Revelations

February

Highlights:

- 2/15 Boys' & Girls' B-ball vs. SPA (home) Varsity
- 2/17 Boys' & Girls' B-ball vs. Calvary (away) Varsity
- 2/21 No school in honor of President's Day
- 2/22 Registration begins for returning students
- 2/23 Chapel
- 3/1 Registration begins for new students
- 3/9 Chapel
- 3/9 Jr. High visitation Day

February 14, 2005

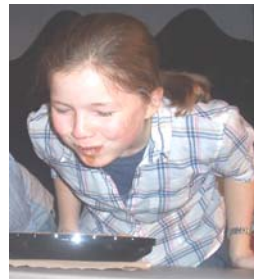

Issue 1

MORP...WERE YOU THERE???

By Roman Castro

There goes another year of Midway madness at the 2nd annual MORP festival. I'm happy to report that close to 100 people attended this year and, even better, is the fact that everyone had a blast. There were a variety of different games and activities, best of all, there were numerous prizes for the winners. Among these games were: the classic bobbing for apples, Out House Show-down, Bulls Eye, Laser Shoot Out, and Horse Shoes. But the highlights of the evening were the mechanical bull, the Texas Hold 'em, and the famous pie-eating contest.

(the saddle boy) Harris.

The last man standing from the pie-eating showdown was Jeff Norton. With blazing guns and a bold face, he took on 30 pies to take down the little town of MORP. Everyone from staff to students had a western good time. Anyone who missed this event missed out on tasty food, a hilarious movie conjured up by the ASB, and a series of victims dished out by the merciless bull of death. Can't wait for next year!

In the grand rodeo arena many of Midway's daring cowboys fell in the attempt to ride the wild mechanical bull. The most brutal falls were taken by the brave Wild Rope Brittany and Tim

Q & A: Why did the boy eat his homework?

By Karina Sifuentes

"Because he didn't want to get in trouble with the teacher." -Rebecca Sifuentes, 2nd grade

"Because the dog was full" -Gene Rheam

"Because his mom didn't want to be on welfare anymore." - Jose Contreras, 10th grade

"Because he was a dog." -Christian Vilamil, 10th grade

"Because Mr. Stanley told him to." -Anthony M., 12th grade

"Because he was extremely hungry." Victoria Barboza, 10th grade

"I don't know... he was hungry?" -Janae, 4th grade

"Cause he did it wrong." -Roman Castro 10th grade

"Because he was ashamed of what he wrote." - Amanda B., 11th grade

Answer on page 4

Revelations

Midway Baptist Schools

2460 Palm Avenue
San Diego, CA 92154

Phone: 619-424-7875
midwaybaptistschools.com

Why did the boy eat his homework?

Answer: Because his teacher said it was a piece of cake.

Sports By Caleb Rheim

score of 62 to 47.

On Tuesday, the basketball teams met up with the Escondido Adventist Red Hawks and, of course, the girls won again. But for the guys, it was a totally different story. They were absolutely slammed by the Red Hawks. The final score ended up being 74-37.

As girls' varsity player Brittany Robinson so obviously pointed out, "You guys only scored like half of their points." Thank you Brittany for that insight.

Now for those of you that are totally anti-social, the Patriots won!! Never thought I'd say that... yep, you got it, the Patriotics won the Superbowl by beating the Eagles by a score of 24-21. Personally, I think the Patriots got out played and lucky that the Eagles' coach should have kicked a field goal the first time they got into the red zone, if you ask me.

Jasmine (10th) catches air on the amazing ladies' basketball team.

Movie of the Week: "Coach Carter"

by Victoria Alexander

The movie chosen for "Movie of the Week" was Coach Carter, an inspirational sports film based on the true life of Coach Ken Carter of Richmond High School. Coach

Carter took a group of miscreant basketball players with no wins to their names and turned them into all-star players. But more importantly, he turned them into a team. If you are looking for a film that will rally your desire to better yourself, then this is a movie worth your pocket money.

Meet the Revelations Staff

Elmer Mondragon, 11th
Editor-in-Chief

Danielle Shin, 11th
Editor-in-Chief

Karina Sifuentes, 10th
Copy and Layout

Caleb Rheim, 10th
Sports Editor

Lindsey Bosch, 10th
In-Depth Issue Editor

Lauren Rheim, 10th
Chief Photographer

Jaime Brambila, 11th
Business Manager

Victoria Alexander, 11th
Entertainment Editor

Roman Castro, 10th
Features Editor

Revelations is Midway Baptist Schools' newspaper that is written by and for the students of our school. Our aim is to write a newspaper that is interesting to read while highlighting the happenings in our school.

- Revelations Staff